ORDER

This matter is before the court on the Government's Motion to Continue Trial [39]. Due to government counsel's trial schedule, she is not available to try this case until after January 3, 2022. Defendant has no objection to the continuance. For good cause shown:

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [39] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for November 2, 2021, is continued to January 4, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and January 4, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny the government continuity of counsel-the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: October 26, 2021.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Susan M. Bazis
United States Magistrate Judge
